

What Child is This?

..... Who do the people say that I am? But who do you say that I am? Luke 9:18,20

It's a historical fact that Jesus Christ was an actual person who lived and walked on this earth. Many documents besides the Bible attest to this. The crucial question, however, is not, was Jesus Christ a real person? Nor is it, who do people think Jesus is? The crucial question for each of us personally from Jesus Christ himself is; who do you say that I am? (Luke 9:20)

The familiar Christmas carol "What Child is This?", asks the very same question. We sing this song every year, but for some reason, this year, the weight of those words has become more significant to me. I suppose it is because this question, though sung during the Holidays by many people, never really gets answered personally.

It is my prayer that during this Christmas season many military people around the world would hear this question personally and begin to seek for the answer that will change their lives. Pray for the Cadence missionaries who God has strategically placed to proclaim the Gospel loud and clear. May many confess that Jesus is truly "Christ the King", their King.

Our Year in Pictures

As 2011 comes to a close, we think back to all the memories we made in the past year as a family. Several of those memories revolve around things like a missions conference, a wedding, a trip to Alaska for the guys, a photography trip for Craig, a girls weekend in Estes Park for Karis and Kim, and a myriad of other moments. As we look forward to 2012 we anticipate those times where we will share our lives with family and with many of you. We cherish those moments! Sometimes they seem few and far between! We want you to know that we appreciate each of you and the friendship we share. Thank you for your investment in our lives during this past year and in the year to come.
